Missionary of the Week

Jeremy and Caroline Dion – Papua New Guinea Jeremy has been preaching more regularly in the national language. Recently, two older women from Kiari passed away. The church folk gathered to bring firewood (from the men) and garden food (from the women) to show community support for one of the bereaved families. Jeremy was able to preach a short Gospel message to the group. A somewhat "normal" part of family life here in PNG is experiencing sickness of one form or another. We are thankful that these are not major illnesses or injuries. Please continue to pray about folks being faithful to meet with us for Bible studies. Immanuel shared with Jeremy that he recently accepted Christ. Please pray that he will be interested in studying the Bible.
