International - We finished our first semester of FEBU in June. We only had two weeks of in-person classes when we had to stop and go back to online classes only. At our last meeting we decided to wait and see what the authorities said before we made a decision concerning going back to in-person classes our second semester. We decided to start offering classes online so church members that might not take regular FEBU classes can still take Bible classes. Our church continues having in-person services even though we can only fill 30% capacity of our building at a time. We look forward to meeting again with all our congregation, but we might have to wait a few months. We are incredibly thankful that we can meet at all. Please pray for our unsaved contacts.
