Missionary of the Week: Ed and Barbara O'Brien – Spanish, North Carolina – Over the past year, it seems as though our people have suffered attacks from every direction. Some members have stopped coming while others have struggled with sin and temptation, especially marital problems and addictions. Please pray for the families in our church. It is not easy to see some of our own children in the faith suffer or go missing in action. I don't remember a time that we have seen so much spiritual warfare and apathy taking place. We do praise the Lord that several of our people who are under attack by the enemy are standing fast in the faith and enduring for the Lord. They trust the Lord to bring them through these times of testing. Please pray for those who are suffering and also for the Lord to give to us some new families that we can lead to the Lord and disciple.
