Missionary of the Week: Bob and Diana Rutta – New Zealand – As we approach the holiday season, please hold off sending mail to us as the US Postal Service has stopped sending mail to New Zealand. In August and part of September we faced lockdowns again. Our part of the country is currently allowed to meet, with restrictions, but other parts of the country are completely locked down and police have set up borders not allowing anyone in or out of those regions. We do not know when the next lockdown will be or how severe. The government is trying to create division between various groups and divide the churches. We must use wisdom and respond carefully and prayerfully. Our Prime Minister is currently making plans that all social gatherings, which includes churches, can only allow people to enter if they have a vaccination certificate. We are encouraged in the Lord and we know that the Lord has good things planned for us.
