Missionary of the Week: David and Emily Stephens — North Africa — The Christmas season is so different from what we expected. We lost our precious son, John, who was only 4 months old, just over two months ago. We're still learning our way through the grieving process and I'm sure the holidays are going to be a very complicated time for us. We lost John just five days before we were planning to move overseas, so our living situation had been a bit uncertain. Several of our friends and supporters have kindly provided places for us. We are currently staying in a cabin in Tennessee and will be here until the end of the year. We still do not know for sure where we will be after that. We are looking for a place to be both refreshed and to serve in small ways. We want a place where we can be useful to God's people. I plan to start writing short devotionals, and we might be able to start learning the Tunisian dialect. Thank you for your love, prayers, and support.
