Tom and Donna Wolfe — Africa & Southeast Asia — In early July I had a basal cell carcinoma diagnosis on my scalp. The surgeon reported that he got all the cancer out. Praise the Lord. Please pray that my wound will heal well. I am finding that nations are once again closing their borders or reinstating travel restrictions due to Covid-19. I had hoped to go to Liberia in November, but Liberia has once again prohibited gatherings. Please pray as I begin to make plans for getting back to our fields in 2022 to work on-site with our missionaries. Please pray for our national workers in Myanmar. Myanmar is under political unrest now which will prevent me from going there. Pray for Nang Lyan Kap, his family, and co-workers in Chin State. Praise the Lord that I was able to travel and serve in Ghana this summer. During my work in Ghana we conducted another modular course in the seminary. This seminary continues to meet a great need.
