Missionary of the Week

David & Emily Stephens —Tunisia— Quite a lot has been happening for us in the last few weeks. Several weeks ago we found out that Emily was expecting again. This gave us an indication of when we might try to depart to Tunisia. After communicating with our mission board we decided to leave in September. Late last month, the Lord saw fit to take this little one to Himself. That was quite a blow after what seemed like a step forward for our family. Since then, Emily has been dealing with some major fatigue and muscle pain that hinder her daily activities. Despite these setbacks we are pushing forward the best we can. We will be active in ministries in several churches over the next few weeks. After that, we have planned a trip to California to see some missionary friends who have previously served in Tunisia. Pray for wisdom as we seek godly counsel concerning our next steps in our ministry.
