Missionary of the Week

Jon & Lena Stover—Germany— It is with great excitement that we begin our first term in Germany! We are thrilled to be helping the Petersons at Bibel Baptiste Gemeinde. I have been able to fill in preaching for Pastor Aaron while he is on a brief furlough. Our next month will be centered on getting established in the field. Finding a place to live has been a bigger challenge than expected. We have a prospective place but not confirmed. Not having an address has slowed our progress because it is essential on a lot of our paperwork. There is still much to get done but we are thankful to have brother Aaron helping. Simeon had his second birthday. He is becoming more expressive as he continues to learn English and German. Pray for us as we are looking at language school, most likely next semester. Lena has had a few opportunities to talk to Russian speaking people, and we praise the Lord for allowing her to use her native tongue.
