Missionary of the Week

Ferdinand & Gloria Reynon— Phillippines—Two Pastors from two of our daughter churches went to be with the Lord in August. These men faithfully served the Lord for 19 to 20 years. This quarter, three men came to the saving knowledge of Christ and began discipleship classes. Also, two couples from a Charismatic church have invited us to their home and are allowing us to share the Bible. Each study we are having weekly with them opens more truths and exposes the fallacy of the doctrines they held for years. They also started inviting their friends. I am praying that these believers will be our co-laborers because they are very zealous in the church that they attended before. We thank the Lord for the students that God gave us this year in our Christian school. My wife has not yet retired from teaching because of her love and burden for the children to be spiritually educated as well as academically.
