Missionary of the Week

Fredrick & Antoinette Kearney — Ghana—Our 6-month furlough ended in January of 2023. Antoinette had the opportunity to travel back to Ghana to support her sister in the burial service of her father. We are thankful that the Lord made it possible for us to spend New Year's Day with our adult children in Tampa, Florida. At home in Ghana, we are still dealing with major roof leakages in our bedroom. We had a successful school chapel at the Tema Ridge School. There have been 25 souls per week led to the Lord. Please pray that the Lord will speak to the hearts of some of our young men and woman to surrender and serve in full-time missions. Pray for us to be granted permission to distribute discipleship materials to Ashaiman Secondary School, and all the high schools in Tema. Also, our church buses are experiencing several mechanical problems and need to be repaired.
