Missionary of the Week

Ben & Marie Muldoon — Romania— Language school is going well. We have attended over 70 hours of classes so far and can generally understand and answer very simple Romanian. Please pray for stamina with our studies and wisdom with balancing homework and the home. Please also pray for our teacher, M.H. We recently found out that her husband is an orthodox priest. We rely heavily on our excellent babysitter, M.K., for us to be able to attend language classes and complete homework. Please continue to pray for her salvation. She has been asking very good questions as to why we live the way we do. She is an immigrant from a Muslim home. Thank you for praying for our visas. Our good friend and landlord helped us with the process, and we received our residency cards on April 25! We definitely stay busy in our free time. The twins are crawling and Serenity is about to turn two.
