Missionary of the Week

Allen and Marion Mercer — South Africa—In April, we had a missions conference at Swan Creek Baptist Church in Jonesville, NC. We would like to thank all of our supporting churches for thirty-three years of serving the Lord together. Our churches in South Africa are all doing well. In talking with some of the Pastors, they are excited about how the Lord is working in their communities. Pastor Orlando reports that they are currently in revival meetings, and on the first night, four people came forward, one for salvation and three for rededication/counseling. Our churches are staying faithful and trusting the Lord. Sadly, I have not seen much spiritual fruit lately. I do not expect things to happen every day, but every now and again it is nice and motivating. The Lord has been very good to me health-wise, with only minor attacks lately. Another little "mercy drop" for us recently has been the visit of our youngest daughter and her son.
