David & Emily Stephens – Northern Africa –On Christmas Eve, there was a joint service at our church’s meeting place. There were 60 local Christians there, all crowded into the upstairs room enjoying their very first experience of Christmas. This part of Africa often endures rolling shortages of various items. White sugar has been hard to come by as well as dairy. The lines to collect 2 cartons of milk are punishingly long. Still, we are managing well. Pray for a growing relationship with the woman that cleans our home. We are hoping to use whatever communicative abilities God supplies to be a witness for Christ. Please pray for our little congregation here. Several of the locals have lost family members recently, so there is a certain heaviness. At the same time, we’ve heard about 5 or 6 conversions in the past few months. The Lord is working!
