Tom & Donna Wolfe – IPM Educator – We began 2023 with cancer diagnoses for Donna and me and are very thankful and happy to report good results and prognosis for the both of us. Please pray with us about God’s will for 2024. We are arranging overseas missions work that we had to postpone due to our health, including a ministry to help with developing the school ministries of our missionaries for teaching and training pastors, church planters, evangelists, and good church workers. We are aiming for a renewed missions trip to the Ivory Coast this coming summer, and also to Mindanao in the Philippines later this year. In September, I have plans to return to Ghana and work with IPM missionary George Dapaah. I will teach another modular course, after which we will hold our third commencement for students that have completed their studies.
