Bruce Tuttle – Georgia – A previous prayer request has been answered. Andre recovered from surgery for his colon cancer, finished chemo treatments, and has returned to his ministry and place of employment. Two parts of our ministry meet at a Baptist church in a rapidly growing suburb. We teach a group of older youth on Friday evenings and a mixed age group on Sunday evenings. The pastors of two churches more than an hour away have asked us to hold classes for them. We look forward to these opportunities while we continue to seek and plan for additional venues. Our aim is to strengthen the churches, provide training for their workers and leaders, but especially to find committed men to train for the planting and pastoring of the new churches.
