Arlene Blood – Retired in Alaska– It is such a blessing to see several of the residents here at Primrose spending time daily in Bible reading and prayer. The Bible class is well attended, but I am interested in them feeding themselves and understanding what they are reading. All of the activities that I do for the residents here help me to build friendships and get to know them personally. Some of them have been going to church with me on Sunday. So many here are not saved and do not have much time left on earth. The Lord continues to bless me with good health and I am able to keep a busy schedule. For this, I am very thankful.
