Linda Bennett – Retired in Texas– Since my last prayer letter, I have lost support from three churches. Please pray that the remaining churches and individuals will continue to be faithful. If more support is lost, I will possibly have to move from my current living situation. I have no idea where to go if this happens! The churches in Jerusalem continue to grow and supply the needs of the military families whose members are away from home. Please pray that the war will end soon and that God's will be done. God is opening doors for me from time to time to witness to those around me. I thank the Lord for the privilege of being able to be used for Him.
