Dion-Papua New Guinea - We have spent almost 5 weeks in the bush now! In those weeks various family members have been sick several different times with GI bugs, colds and teething. We enjoyed meeting those who came to greet us when the helicopter landed, as well as others with whom we have crossed paths. It was especially a blessing to begin reconnecting with the believers here. Many have remained faithful. Some have backslidden. It’s currently coffee season which has made it more challenging for the believers to be faithful in gathering for worship. It’s certainly a time to pray for these dear folks as they both work hard and then have so many demands and enticements on the money that they have earned. Jeremy had the opportunity to speak at a 4-day youth camp in Aibai. Pray that the Lord will do a lasting work in the hearts of these teens.
