Bob & Diana Rutta-At the end of April our youngest daughter, Sarah, was married to a faithful young man in our church. Nathan, our new son-in-law, is called to preach. A few days after the wedding we received word that my wife’s 94-year-old father had passed away. We had to make an emergency trip to the States to be there for the funeral in Kentucky. We are back home now in New Zealand and the Lord continues to bless our church. Attendances have been a bit lower than normal as we have entered the winter months. This isn’t unusual, and we face it each year. Thank you again for upholding us in prayer. We love and appreciate you all!
